

OLD WESTBURY GARDENS

presents a children's concert
in honor of the 59th Israeli Independence Day
DOMINIQUE SOUCY, flutist VERED REZNIK, pianist
with guest artist AYELET ROSE GOTTLIEB

APARTMENT TO LET

and other big and small animal stories

An original story by Israeli author Leah Goldberg, Apartment to Let has been a children's favorite since its publication in 1959. A tale about open-mindedness and tolerance, it inspired the celebrated Israeli composer Yehezkel Braun to write an engaging piece for flute and piano, intertwined with Goldberg's text.

The Mule, and The Mouse and the Lion are among favorite Aesop's fables. Composer Anthony Plog's charming score gives them a whole new twist.

In between these stories, you might get to fly with a bumblebee without getting stung, or swim along with a trout without getting wet...

April 22, 3 PM. Free admission
www.oldwestburygardens.org